Eleanor Emberson

Another 60+ miles today, but still finding that amounts to more hours in the saddle than expected. Some paths with very rough surfaces today and quite a few delays navigating, but a beautiful morning cycling through woodland and farmland to the glorious old market town of Lutherstadt Wittenberg. From there we picked up the route along the Elbe. After crossing the river by ferry we eventually arrived in Torgau, which is another beautiful old town with a rather striking fountain in the main square. — with Bruce Ryan at Stadt Torgau.

Rachel Gwyon beautiful town. I admire your energy and commitment – 60 miles a day! Well worth a decent cocktail/beer.

Eleanor Emberson Definitely beer – it's the right part of the world for it! Hope you've got a summer break lined up before Boston.
