Eleanor Emberson
 Not such a good day. I have had a cold threatening for days but it decided today to make its miserable presence felt. I was struggling with balance on the bike, possibly because I had packed panniers badly or possibly because of the cold. Bruce has a dodgy knee and my left achilles tendon is playing up – what a pair! We settled on an easier day (45 miles) and stopped at Meißen rather than pushing on to Dresden. Glad we did as it's a very beautiful and very, very old town. Very tasty dinner and local beer outdoors in the market square and then a climb up the castle steps to get this view. — with Bruce Ryan at Meissen.

Jane Hay Hope tomorrow will be a better day for you. In the meantime good food and beer will no doubt help
