

03.09.2014
Sorell Hotel Rex

Weinbergstraße 92

CH-8006 Zürich

+41(0)44 / 360 25 25

The small but elegant Swiss-Q hotel was Friedrich Dürrenmatt's favourite hotel in Zurich. The guests are charmingly and competently attended to. If you have booked half-board you will dine externally in the historical city centre.

Location

Your hotel is located in a beautiful old living area opposite the train station on the other side of the Limmat and very close to the university.

How to get to your hotel

It is best to orientate yourself at Zurich's central train station. You reach the Central-Platz which is located at the bridge at the train station by crossing the Neumühle-quai on the right side of the river in direction of its flow. There you can also find a funicular railway. To the north the Weinbergstrasse branches off. You follow it uphill until you see your hotel in the right side of the road.